CALL FOR EXHIBITORS 2018

Middletown Recreation Council (MRC) is proud to host the Color Me Spring Festival. Join us on Saturday, May 19, 2018 for a fabulous day of festivities!

MRC's Color Me Spring Festival is held at the Middletown Community Park at 7628 Coblantz Rd. The park is a 79 acre Frederick County owned park located between the Middletown School Campus and the Foxfield development.

We are inviting both local crafters and local home based business consultants to join us at our festival.

FESTIVAL DATE

May 19, 2018

10:00am to 5:00pm

EXHIBITOR INFORMATION

Booths will be assigned by MRC on a first come first serve basis.

Set-Up time can be any time from 7:00am to 9:00am

Tear Down time: 5:00 pm.

Parking is available at the park. Please let us know if you need a handicap space so we may meet your needs.

GUIDELINES

1. MRC's Color Me Spring Festival is open to all artists, crafters, business, and home based business consultants 18 years of age and older. Somebody must be present in the booth at all times.

2. For Artists and Crafters – work must be original art and must be for sale.

3. For Home Based Businesses – we will only be allowing one consultant per business group/company name so please email us first before sending a check

4. Exhibitors must provide their own tents. Displays are restricted to the booth space assigned. All booth furnishings: tables, chairs, display walls, credit card machines, etc... must be provided by the vendor.

5. Water is available. Exhibitors must provide their own containers.

6. Exhibitors who will have food samples or sales MUST obtain a food permit from Frederick County and MUST adhere to health department guidelines. If in doubt about needing a permit, please contact the Frederick County Health Department.

7. No helium tanks under covered spaces.

8. Exhibitors are responsible for collecting and paying their sales tax. There is not a guarantee a profit will be made.

9. It is MRC's exclusive right and responsibility to remove work (or an entire booth) that is not in compliance with our guidelines. The Council reserves the right to remove an exhibitor from the Festival for inappropriate behavior or circumstance detrimental to a public event without refund.

10. Exhibitor agrees to remove all trash, debris, etc...from exhibit space upon teardown.

EXHIBIT SPACE

Exhibitor will display their work in an outdoor setting in designated sites. The booth fee is due with application. See "Fees and Acceptance" for cancellation and refund information.

All exhibit areas are 10' x 10'. Upon request a 10' x 20' area will be available. The surface is grass or concrete.

Access to electricity is NOT available and generators will NOT be allowed.

APPLICATION PROCESS

1. Please complete and sign both pages of the application.

2. Enclose a check (made out to Middletown Rec Council) for the booth fee and return both forms.

3. Mail to:
Middletown Recreation Council
ATTN: Pam Dietrick
P.O. Box 234.
Middletown, MD 21769

4. Event will be held rain or shine and vendor fees are not refundable. In the case of extraordinary weather conditions and a decision of cancellation of event application fees are NOT refundable.

5. Vendors may not give their booth space to another vendor. Your booth space is yours and will be forfeited if you cannot attend.
